Jacqui Graham is operating the switchboard from 10-2 each day.

Don Schweyer successfully completed his masters thesis in linguistics and defended it on Monday, Oct. 12. He will receive his degree at the U. of A.'s November convocation.

The proof sheets for the next issue of the Concordian came back from the printer with the following goof in an article on Gerald Krispin: "Gerald received his masters degree in scared theology ..." Needless to say, this won't appear in the final copy, but the humor is shared for everyone to enjoy!

The reason a dog is man's best friend is that he pays no attention to what folks say about him.

When a man and a woman marry, they become one. The trouble starts when they try to decide which one.

One of the things we have to be thankful for is that we don't get as much government as we pay for.

Come and Get It

Asked by his father how he liked his first day of vacation Bible school, the four-year-old said, "Just great. We go outside to play, and when we come back in, God has juice and cookies all ready."

All Ye Who Labor

There are two kinds of people: those who do the work and those who take the credit. We should all strive to be in the first group; there is much less competition there.

Say Cheese

Two sisters were looking at a book of religious pictures and came across a painting of the Virgin and the baby Jesus. "See there," said the older girl, "that's Jesus, and that's His mother."

"But where," asked the younger girl, "is His father?"

Her sister thought for a moment, then explained, "Oh, he's taking the picture."
