ONE OF MY FAVORITE SAYINGS is that in our company we stack every bit of criticism between two layers of praise. I think this is a more diplomatic, concerned approach.

Can we do it again this month? The Concordia Guild was thrilled with the response to the sale of Safeway Coupons in October. The total of $10,000 purchased netted the Guild $800 toward their $5,300 goal for this year's projects.

Another opportunity to participate in the Safeway Coupon project is being provided. Order your coupons from Jeannette E. Lietzau on the Highlands Campus or from Shirley Brown on the Braemar Campus.

Please order these TODAY or TOMORROW MORNING at the latest. Please provide cash or cheques payable to the Concordia Guild (cheques may be postdated to November 26, 1990 - after pay day).

The Guild looks forward to receiving your orders. The coupons will be distributed on Tuesday, November 27. Thanks to all!

News About Staff

Dr. Catherine Eddy recently attended the annual Conference of Lutheran Deans in Washington, D.C. It provided some interesting ideas on how to encourage students to get involved in voluntary activities here at Concordia College, and some perspectives on what's happening in the area of experiential education in the United States.

Interim President Richard Kraemer participated in the inauguration of Dr. Jonathan Grothe, Concordia Lutheran Theological Seminary's second president (St. Catharines). Public events included a symposium featuring a presentation of academic papers on the topic of Martin Luther and the Medieval University by Dr. John Stephenson, Assistant Professor of Historical Theology, Concordia Seminary, and Dr. Herbert Schutz, Professor of Germanic Studies, Brock University.

Our Christian sympathy is extended to Cindy Willisko (Admissions Counselor), whose grandmother died late last week.

The resignation of Lynn Rodgers from the staff of the library was received with regret (effective December 3, 1990). We wish you well in your future endeavors, Lynn.

Ann Nelson, wife of Russell, mother of Shawn and Shawnda, part-time Library employee, and a member of the U.S. Air Force Reserve, was recently called to active duty. She left Edmonton last Tuesday morning for a 90-day stint in the United States.
