

Concordia Campus Party Journal Mar. 25, 1961

On Friday, March 17, the grade 11 class sponsored a campus party with a St. Patrick's Day theme. Class social convener Anola Lange, directed the group games in which everyone, faculty and students, took part. Gary Hyatt served as master of ceremonies.

VOLLEYBALL CHAMPS

On March 16, the Concordia intramural volleyball championship was won by Larry Mohr and his team. On Monday, March 20, they proved their superiority when they defeated an all-star squad in two straight games. The volleyball season will be officially closed on March 25, when a tournament will be held at Barrhead.

Still on the sport's scene, the Concordia high school hockey team overpowered a squad of Concordia college men by the score of 12 to 2.

Saturday, March 18, a junior and senior basketball team from College de St. Jean invaded the Highlands' campus and edged the Concordia Juniors 33-30, and the Seniors 32-38.

CANVASSERS ACTIVE

On the same day, about 15 Concordia students canvassed the Edmonton downtown area on behalf of Grace Lutheran Church in conjunction with the current Preaching - Teaching - Reaching program of that church.

The Concordia College Male Chorus was the chief entertainer at the recent officer-installation meeting of the University Lutheran Student Association in Edmonton. The director of the chorus, Gerald J. Weber, announced that the singing group will make a guest appearance on CFRN-TV on March 29, one day before it starts an Easter Tour of southern Alberta and British Columbia.