Open House was held at Concordia last Saturday and more than 100 people from Edmonton and district attended the all-day affair.

Called "Concordia Field Day" the activities started at 10:30 a.m. with track and field competition for boys in junior high school.

After lunch a program was presented by students. First the "Kingston Quartet" of Don Thompson, Harold Haberstock, Larry Mohr, and Gerald Weber sang several selections. Then Wayne Stuhlmiller, Wilson Porat, and Shirley Nagel spoke on the challenge of entering full time church work as pastors and teachers.

Then the guests were shown a science display in the new science laboratory, and were taken on campus tours. The day's events ended with the baseball game in which Camrose Lutheran College defeated Concordia 8-6.

Last Sunday night an outdoor wiener roast was sponsored by the social committee. After supper Gerald Weber led a sing-song and a scavenger hunt followed. Ed Crape's team was the winner. Don Thompson led in closing devotions.
