

Concordia Holding Mock Olympic Games

BY FAITH REINER

Tonight at 7:30 the Junior Red Cross Club at Concordia High School will hold Red Cross Olympics in the school gymnasium.

Social games will be played in the framework of Olympic events, and prizes, cups and medals will be awarded to the winning countries. Club president Cliff Stangeland will be the master of ceremonies for the evening.

Besides the Olympic events there will be stage entertainment, group games and a sing-song. Three dramatic presentations, written by club secretary Doreen Schienbein, will be presented.

presented.

Ron Chaykowski is chairman of the decoration committee, William Torgerson heads the publicity committee, and Bruce Glennie is in charge of the stage committee. Doreen Schienbein is in charge of refreshments. All proceeds go to the club's current project, equipping and sending a school chest with school supplies to a school in Greece.

The evening will provide a pleasant change from the spring campus clean-up which took place this morning and afternoon in preparation for the Spring Shower Day to be held Sunday beginning at 3:00 p.m.
