For the past three weeks Grade 10 students of Concordia College have been busy planning the party which they are sponsoring for the student body tonight at 7:30 p.m.

The party theme is Ye Olde School Days. The publicity committee, directed by Vernon Nast, has been hard at work placing posters and publicizing the party in various ways. The class president, William Torgerson, and the social convener, Lorraine Pohl, co-ordinated all committee work.

William Torgerson, master of ceremonies, will welcome the gathering. Grant Gattinger will sing a solo, Tom Sawyer style.

The evening will close with a devotion led by Rod Wilczak.
