

SANDRA DRESSLER

COLIN LISKE

Concordia Sending Trio To Leadership Conference

BY MARIE MACGREGOR

Sandra Dressler of Churchbridge, Sask. and Colin Liske of Brightview, will represent the student body of Concordia College at the Lutheran Student Leadership Conference to be held at Portland, Oregon, next Monday through Wednesday.

At the convention they will meet with student leaders from 13 other high schools and colleagues of The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, to discuss student leadership, faculty-student leadership, faculty-student relations, scholarship, educational and worship topics.

Sandra is the first girl ever to represent Concordia at this annual conference. She represents the high school division of the college. She is president of her Grade 11 class, and has achieved honor roll standing throughout her two years at Concordia.

She is a member of the girls' volleyball teams, and is a member of the Co-ed Council. Sandra plans to become a teacher in a Lutheran school.

Colin is a ministerial student in his first year in the college department. He is a member of the college basketball team, and on the executive of the Male Chorus. He is also student affairs chairman on the Students' Council, and is chairman of the student public relations committee of the school.

Also attending will be Dean of Students Erich A. von Fange. The Concordia delegates will fly down and back and will report on the conference upon their return.

2/4/61