

Signpost

March 13, 1984

ISSUE: 50

Dates to Note

This is an activity-filled week at Concordia, so be sure these events are on your schedule!!

TUESDAY: "The Hiding Place", an inspirational film Two showings at 5:00 and 9:00 pm in the Auditorium.

WEDNESDAY: Pie-Throwing Contest during 6th Period in the Cafeteria. Some targets--Brenda Brookes, Richard Kraemer, Ruth Mathes!! If you have a steady aim and some extra funds, be there!
Proceeds are for the high school grad.

THURSDAY: Talent Night - 7:30 pm - Chapel/Auditorium
This promises to be a very enjoyable evening-- don't miss it!

FRIDAY: College Cabaret at the Northwoods Inn, 101st Ave. and 105th St. Tickets are $5.00 each--available from the Student Union office or at the switchboard.

Basketball

Pep Rally

A reminder that high school classes will be cancelled on Friday following the 4th period so faculty and students can attend the basketball game in Devon. Your $1.00 bus fare must be given to Brenda Brookes by noon on Thursday, March 15.
There will also be a $2.00 admission fee at the game.

All high school students and faculty are expected to be in attendance at the PEP RALLY scheduled for 12:05 pm on Friday.

Wake-a-thon

Can you stay awake for 36 hours? Support the grad class by participating in the Wake-A-Thon this Friday and Saturday, March 16 and 17. Sponsor sheets are available in the Student Union office.

Meetings

March 14 and 15: Yearbook Committee "work sessions"
3:30 pm, Room 224

Summer Courses

For the first time this summer, Concordia will be offering summer school classes in the following subjects: ENGLISH 30, SOCIAL STUDIES 30, MATH 30, ENGLISH 215, PSYCHOLOGY 260, SOCIOLOGY 201, MATHEMATICS 202. The high school classes will be offered July 3-August 8, and the college classes will run Monday-Thursday, July 16-August 13. Please contact Sheila Parr in the Admissions Office for more details.

Education Students

Education students transferring to the U of A next year:
The speech competency exam required of all Faculty of Education students will be held on March 23. Information and sign-up sheets are in the Registrar's Office.