Staff Notes

Does the above sound like Dawn Brown's position? Well, it is! Dawn has resigned and will move to Calgary with her new husband at the end of April.

Please welcome two new members of the support staff: Mrs. Holly Dahl – Administrative Assistant to the Vice-President for Advancement and Administrative Services, and Mrs. Anita Wagner – Clerk/Typist in the Business Office. Both will begin their duties on Monday, March 11. Holly is a Concordia alum and a member at Christ the King Lutheran congregation. Anita is in the process of moving with her husband and family from Waldheim, Saskatchewan (yes, she is related to Mary!).

Dr. Bob Rogers will again be participating in the Banff Centre for Management Seminar in Industrial and Hazardous Waste Management (from May 5–11, 1991).

Excused Classes

Friday, March 15 – for travel to participate in sports activity.

Exploring Church Vocations Retreat

Twenty-five guests from Abbotsford, Medicine Hat and the Edmonton area will be on campus from March 8–10 for the annual Exploring Church Vocations Retreat. Sponsored by the Admissions Office (Church Recruitment), their schedule includes career information sessions, Bible study, campus tours, coffee house with 'Happy Together' and events to develop community and just have plain good fun.

Please welcome these visitors when you see them in the hallways. Lynn Gergens or Dale Lehman can be contacted for more information.

To all the Concordia Staff:

*To thank you and to say
your kindness
was very much appreciated.*

Thank you for your concern while I was away from work. Your calls, visits, cards, and beautiful flowers helped brighten my days.

Thank you.
Maxine Nelson

Student Seeks Accommodation

Brian Gash (Yr. I student) is looking for a basement suite, or room/board accommodation. He is hoping to find something in the $200 per month range; he would be willing to provide some light housekeeping duties. Contact Brian in the men's dormitory (D-6) if you can be of assistance.

Few things are more upsetting than getting a second opinion that you like less than the first.

CLUC Lecture Series

Camrose Lutheran University College presents the 13th annual Theological Lecture Series on March 14–15 – "Creation in Crisis." The lectures will be presented by Dr. Douglas John Hall, Professor of Christian Theology at McGill University.

Lecture #1: 9:35am, Thursday, March 14
Creation in Crisis: Christian Responsibility. How should we respond to the charge that the Christian tradition is the source of the ecological crisis?

Lecture #2: 3:30pm, Thursday, March 14
The Integrity of Creation: An Ontology of Communion. Human beings are different, but does that mean better?

Lecture #3: 10:30am, Friday, March 15
Stewards, Priests, Poets: Humanity Within Creation. How shall we conceive of the human vocation?

On Thursday evening, Dr. Hall will also dialogue with Wilson Okeymaw – A Native Perspective on Modern Day Views of Nature.

A brochure is available from Gail Gilbert (Rm. 208) if you are interested in further details.

"What is the secret of your success?" a reporter asked a bank president.

"Two words."

"And what would they be, sir?"

"Right decisions."

"And how do you make the right decisions?"

"Experience."

"And how do you get experience?"

"Two words."

"What are they?"

"Wrong decisions."
