Year 10: #1

July 11, 1990

Faculty Office Changes

A number of faculty offices will be gained and a few lost over the summer and next spring. In mid-July the Seminary house and trailers will be moved to locations north of the Phys.Ed. trailer on the west side of the campus. They will be converted to single and double offices, with at least one classroom. Meanwhile, the two offices next to the Business Office will be directed to other uses, and next spring Grady House will be demolished. The net gain should be about eight single offices.

Faculty members who wish to request one of these offices should contact the Dean of Academic Affairs, in writing, as soon as possible. Offices will be allocated on the basis of faculty seniority. Final decisions should be made by early August so that people can get settled before classes start.

Please drop in and talk to Catherine Eddy if you want more information.

King's College Announces Growth Plans

The King's College has launched a 4-year fundraising campaign with a goal of $7 million to partially meet the funding requirements for College operations and campus development. In May of 1989, the Board of Governors approved the purchase of land at Whitemud and 50th Street in the Millwoods area for a new campus.

The College hopes to open doors to the new facility in September, 1993. The campus master plan will incorporate provisions for future expansion phases to eventually accommodate in excess of 1000 students.

In recommending the renewal of President Henk Van Andel's contract for another five years, the Presidential Evaluation Committee credited Dr. Van Andel with "unfailing vision for the importance of a permanent campus for the College's long-range well-being."

Spoonerisms

Though he enjoyed a distinguished career as a clergyman and warden of New College, Oxford, the Rev. William Archibald Spooner (1844-1930) is best known for the type of word play named after him. A nervous man, Spooner often transposed the first letters of words, giving rise to "spoonerisms."

For instance, at one Sunday service, he asked his congregation to sing "From Iceland's Greasy Mountains." At a wedding, he told the groom, "It is kistomary to cuss the bride."

Urging Parliament to pay tribute to "dear old" Queen Victoria, Spooner called for "three cheers for the queer old dean." And when calling on an actual dean, he asked the dean's secretary, "Is the bean dizzy?"

One of Spooner's best-known transpositions occurred when he tried to greet a group of farmers as "sons of toil." You guessed it: "I see before me tons of soil."

*A horse can't pull while kicking.
This fact we merely mention.
And he can't kick while pulling,
Which is our chief contention.*

*Let's imitate the good old horse
And lead a life that's fitting;
Just pull an honest load, and then
There'll be no time for kicking.*

Ladies Guild Projects

The Concordia College Ladies Guild completed another successful year during which they provided flooring for the hallways and blinds for the lounge in Founders Hall. In addition to their usual fund-raising activities (birthday cake sales, Safeway coupon sales, flea market, bake sales, used clothing sales), they were supported in their efforts this year by Ladies groups throughout Canada.

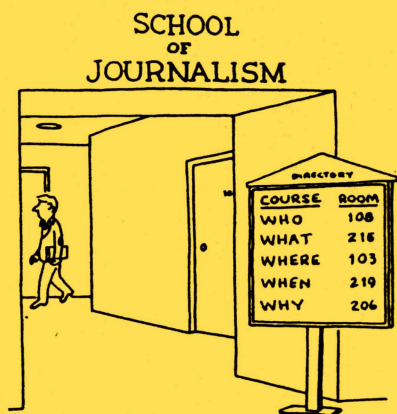

In 1990-91 they plan to fund new flooring and draperies for the Annex.

Guild projects in previous years include:

- . Refinished tables and painted walls in the Cafeteria
- . Purchase of 100 graduation gowns and caps
- . Chairs, draperies, carpet and painted walls in the Founders Hall lounge
- . Lounge furniture and draperies and painted walls for Eberhardt Hall
- . Lounge furniture and paint for Annex
- . Carpet and chairs for Library
- . Overhead projectors, audio-visual projector, and micro-fiche reader-printer
- . Beds and carpet for Annex

In addition, the Guild provides a $250 student scholarship every year.

Our hats are off to you, Guild ladies! The campus family - faculty, staff and students - appreciate your efforts.
