TEAM LUTZER FIRST IN ROAD RACE

The Kinsmen Labatt's Lite Racing Team placed first in the June 27th inaugural running of the Kananaskis 100 mile road race. Harry Lutzer is a team member.

With over 100 teams entered, the race started at 7:00pm at Longview, 55 miles southwest of Calgary. The runners climbed in stages from their 4,000 ft. start to 7,300 ft. at stage 5, the highest vehicle pass in Canada. The race ended at the Kananaskis Lodge (Mt. Allen).

The Kinsmen team was challenged throughout the entire race, with the lead switching back and forth numerous times along the course. The win was finally sealed in the last stage of the race when their last runner beat the Vancouver Lion's Gate final runner by 7 minutes. The Kinsmen team finished the 100 mile race in 11 hours and 4 minutes. In addition to a $500 winning prize, the team received a large sculptured team trophy and small individual trophies for each runner.

Congratulations, Harry, and condolences to Barrie Day, who competed with a team that didn't fare quite so well!

Driven to despair: Four fathers were discussing family problems at a watering spot. Said one of the fellows, his assertiveness bolstered by joy juice: "Know something? I'm gonna quit arguing with my teenage son about borrowing the car. From now on, whenever I need it, by golly, I'm just gonna take it!"

Words to resign by

To my employer:

'T is the night before payday and this is no joke,
I can't leave the house because I'm so broke.
My stockings are hung by the chimney to air,
The dryer is back in the store for repair.
The pittance you pay me is already spent
On luxury items like food, heat and rent.

When what to my wondering eyes should appear
But an ad in the paper that made it quite clear,
That I could work elsewhere and make lots more dough,
If only I had the courage to go.
So I applied for the job, and to my surprise
Was given the nod over nine other guys.
And now we are down to the old bottom line . . .
It's been golden, boss, but today I resign.
