

Ceremony Marks Term's End At Concordia College

Twenty-second annual commencement exercises for 16 graduates of Concordia College were marked Friday evening by a colorful ceremony held in the Virginia Park school auditorium. Witnessed by more than 300 parents and friends, a highlight was the award of junior diplomas to graduates in the department of theology. Pictured above at the presentation are: left, Theodore Luch, MacNutt, Sask; Rev. Dr. A. H. Schwermann, principal; Ronald Raedeke and Herbert Fox, both of Edmonton.
