

Concordia Class Stages "Roundup"

A "Round-up" party sponsored by the Grade 10 class at Concordia College last Saturday featured western decorations and entertainment in the school corral. . . 'er gym. The class threw the gate wide for the student-body and faculty during an evening of entertainment and refreshments.

Richard Schienbein, the master of ceremonies, introduced the first act, "School Daze," which featured Cliff Stangeland as a harried teacher. Then Richard Riep and Raphael Steinke pantomimed a guitar playing duet, while Norman Fraser and Werner Neimeister gave a humorous skit called "Toothache."

A girls' sextet including Doreen Schienbein, Deanna Scheuer, Lorraine Klein, Karen Raby, Ella Reuter and Marion Lahsberg sang two numbers. Doreen and Deanna also sang a duet. Sandra Dressler played a piano solo. Linda Lange, Deanna Scheuer, and Gary Baron were in a skit entitled "Lady Doctor."

Raphael Steinke and Cliff Stangeland appeared in a skit portraying a political rally. Others participating in the program were Ray Lutz, Robert Naber and Lawrence Rosnau. A lunch of hamburgers and soft drinks was served, followed by a closing devotion led by Prof. Albert H. Miller.
