
$1,000 Grant Given College

Concordia College has received $1,000 from Aides Association for Lutherans, Appleton, Wisc., which will be used for scholarships during the 1961-62 academic year.

This brings to $6,000 the amount received by Concordia for scholarships from the association since 1956. During the past two years the association has allocated $93,000 for scholarships to students attending Lutheran Synodical Conference colleges and seminaries.
