

Honor Roll Released

When the results of the Concordia College semester exams were announced recently, five students found their names on the Honor Roll. They are Irene Gerlinger, Robert Naber, Sandra Dressler, Harold Wittee and Anola Lange.

Thursday, all classes were held in the morning, and in the afternoon the studentbody gathered in the auditorium to hear reports by Colin Liske and Sandra Dressler, who represented Concordia at this year's Lutheran Student Leadership Conference in Portland, Ore., from Feb. 9 to 11.

After their reports, the student body broke up into different committees. Each committee discussed and made recommendations about a particular phase of campus life.
