FACULTY RETREAT APPRECIATION

Thanks to all for an enjoyable Faculty Retreat--to Gary, Doug, Orville, John, Shelley, Harry and Barry for their special presentations; to Richard and Gerald for their devotions; to all who asked questions, made new friends and contributed to the esprit de corps!

- J. Meier, Dean of Academic Affairs

COLLEGE CHRISTMAS EXAM SCHEDULES

Christmas exam schedules (college) are available! Pick up from outside the Registrar's Office.

STAFF NOTES

Frank Belden has been appointed to a special Edmonton Chamber of Commerce task force to study and prepare a position paper for the Chamber on senate reform. The task force is chaired by William Faulkner, Solicitor with Ingersoll and Ingersoll.

Annabel Coldeway will present a paper to the International Society for Individualized Instruction this month. The title: "Extending Behavioral Instruction Through the Use of ISD Technology".

Annabel and her husband, Dan, have an article in press--"An Extension of PSI through the application of instructional systems design technology." Can. Journal of Educational Communication.

Mircea Panciuk and Bonita Schalk are attending a "first ever" Synodical librarians conference at Concordia College, Ann Arbor, Michigan. The meeting is arranged through the Synod's Board for Higher Education Services and will allow for possible planning of such areas as Synodical library co-operation. The conference began October 1, and ends on Saturday, October 3.

HOUSE FOR RENT

A small, two-bedroom home backing onto the ravine at 7527 - 110 Avenue is available for rent on November 1. Stove and refrigerator are included; no garage. Rent is $480 per month.

Contact Nick Porozni at 421-6336 (office) or 469-2832 (home).

BOOKSTORE KEY

A key to the Bookstore (Grady House) is available from Betty Clark at the Switchboard to use for pick-up of printing (e.g. exams) between 8-8:30am in the mornings. The need to use it will only arise if for some reason the Bookstore is closed.

ENGINEERING VIDEOTAPE

The Faculty of Engineering at the U. of A. has recently completed a Faculty Profile videotape (VHS) entitled "A New Challenge". This tape has been designed to inform prospective students about the profession of Engineering, as well as the programs offered at the University of Alberta. A copy of this videotape is available from the Concordia College library.
