

Young Edmonton

College Male Chorus Singing At Inaugural

BY COLIN LISKE

The Concordia College Male Chorus is well into a year of public appearances. Already they have sung several times at the college, in city Lutheran churches and at the annual Canadian Mental Health Association banquet.

Tomorrow morning the chorus will sing at the inaugural service in the new Lutheran mission at the Holyrood School. It will appear in Lutheran churches in Vegreville and Mannville Dec. 1st and at the Rotary Carol Festival. At this festival the chorus will sing "Carol of the Bells," and "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel."

CHORUS MEMBERS

Included in the 25 member chorus are: Alfred Maier, Clayton Obal, Grant Gattinger, Vernon Nast, Richard Mackie, Irwin Pudrycki, Harold Haberstock, Ron Towriss, Albert Maier, Ron Levagood, Richard Schienbein, Allen Jacobi, Colin Liske, Gerald Schienbein, Stan Enders, Larry Lentz, Vic Hippe, Ron Otke, Ted Folkman, Don Thompson, Wayne Stuhlmiller, Wilson Porat, Larry Mohr, David Ulmer, and Ron Chaykowski.

The chorus executive consists of Gerald Weber of Regina, Sask., director; Don Thompson of Regina, Sask., assistant director; Ted Folkman of Edmonton, president; Alfred Maier of Courtney, B.C., vice-president; Colin Liske of Brightview, secretary, and Wilson Porat of Grenfell, Sask., treasurer.

The Male Chorus is planning a 2,500 mile Easter vacation tour. This tour will include some 15 concerts in southern B.C. and on the coast.

Concordia's basketball teams were organized recently. The members of the college men's team are: W. C. Beck, coach; Raymond Ensminger, Wayne Stuhlmiller, Howard Fabricius, Lawrence Koehler, Wilson Porat, Colin Liske and Alfred Maier.

The high school senior boys' team is composed of Don Thompson, Gerald Schienbein, Richard Schienbein, Brian Nilsson, Allen Jacobi, Albert Maier, Larry Mohr, Stan Enders, Wayne Jyslop, Davie Forseth, Robert Naber, Werner Neumeister and Ron Long. The high school junior team members are: Allen Tiedeman, Ron Chaykowski, Rodney Wilczak, Lawrence Rosnau, Rappael Steinke, Gary Baron, Cliff Stangeland, Bruce Glennie, Ron Otke, Vernon Nast and Dwight Lilledahl. Composing the high school girls' team are: Anitj Pohl, Lorraine Pohl, Marie MacGregor, Gladys Mayer, Beatrix Henke, Anola Lange, Linda Lange, Sandra Dressler, Thelma Nagel, Jeanette O'Brien and Sharon Gabert.

In the first two games of the North Central Alberta Basketball League, Concordia's senior boys defeated the Redwater seniors 26-21, while the Redwater girls defeated Concordia's girls 23-14.