

GOOD LUCK ON FINAL EXAMS!

24/7 STUDY SPACE

Students can access the cafeteria 24/7, if they would like to remain on campus to study. If the doors are locked, contact Security at (780) 479-8761, show your Concordia ID, and Security will allow you access to main seating area.

FREE HOT CHOCOLATE & COFFEE

Aramark will provide free coffee and hot chocolate (available by the main doors of Hole Academic Building) to students during final exams.

CHAPEL INFORMATION

Throughout the next 10 days of exams, a devotion time will be held at 12-noon each day, in the prayer chapel (not the auditorium). Come and join us as we lift our community and our world up to God's care each day, waiting for the Christchild of Hope, Love, Peace and Joy

Chapels also continue each day at 10:45 at the Seminary, and you are most welcome to join them!!

Your Opinion Matters!

Evaluate your courses online
NOW

Beginning November 23, an online questionnaire will be posted on your CCMS for each of your courses. The surveys will remain open until December 6.

Your feedback is confidential. Any questions regarding the confidentiality of your responses can be forwarded to the Privacy Officer at privacy@concordia.ab.ca.

Your feedback matters. When the online course evaluation opens, be sure to respond with honest and constructive reflections about your learning experiences.

CONGRATULATIONS!

to CUCA trumpet instructor and Festival City Winds founder and principal conductor Wendy Grasdahl, recipient of a 2014 City of Edmonton Salute to Excellence Citation Award in Arts and Culture! Wendy was recognized for "substantial, enduring contributions" in a broad range of activities through which she has raised Edmonton's music profile. A great honour! and a privilege to have her working with our students.

Catch Wendy in her element this Saturday in Festival City Winds' Christmas concert in Tegler, FREE with CUCA ID at the door!
