Do you know a student who is changing the world?

For CGI U 2018, we are looking for some of the best and brightest student leaders to join us along with President Bill Clinton and Chelsea Clinton at the University of Chicago from October 19-21, 2018. If you know a student who is making a difference in their community, you can nominate them for CGI U. Once you complete the form, we will reach out to the student about the application process.

Nominate a Student!

The deadline for students to apply for early decision and travel assistance is March 16. The sooner you nominate a student, the sooner they can learn about this exciting opportunity and be eligible for funding. Students will also have the chance to apply before our final deadline on April 23. Learn about the CGI U 2018 application at cgiu.org/apply.

Why should students apply to CGI U?

1. CGI U provides mentorship for young commitment-makers. All students accepted to CGI U 2018 will be assigned a mentor who will help guide them as they develop their Commitments to Action. Mentors are former CGI U students with academic backgrounds and professional expertise in their given fields. See our impressive roster of Commitment Mentors from 2017.
2. CGI U is a growing network for student leaders. Each year, students tell us that meeting fellow social innovators is one of the most impactful experiences they have had. Throughout the year, CGI U provides online engagement opportunities where students can interface not only with Clinton Foundation staff, but with other students and a network of more than 10,000 alums making a difference around the world.
3. CGI U students go on to do great things! Many students tell us how CGI U served as a catalyst to turn their idea into action and holds them accountable to their commitment. Check out highlights of students from CGI U 2017 in Boston, and read these impressive profiles of our CGI U Honor Roll alumni, who have made significant impact through their Commitments to Action.
