Readings by Concordia's Creative Writing Students

Students from Writing 391, Introduction to Fiction Writing, will read from their short stories on Thursday, April 7, at 4.30 pm, in the library foyer. Refreshments will be served, and the event is free and open to the public. Come hear the great fiction produced by Concordia students, learn about creative writing at Concordia, and celebrate the end of term.

We're building the Concordia Tutor Registry

Student Life & Learning is building the Concordia Tutor Registry in order to help serve the tutoring needs of our students, more specifically, those using Learning Accommodation Services. We want to assist with connecting students and qualified tutors. The hourly rate paid for these services depends upon the tutor's education level and experience, as well as the student's budget.

To be considered for inclusion in the Tutor Registry, please complete a Tutor Application Package, available from Student Life & Learning.

Student applicants are required to submit the following: a current resume of your education, work and volunteer experience, two instructor references, a tutor reference if experienced, an official transcript and verification of academic status. Tutors must also have successfully completed at least 54 university credits and have attained a GPA of 2.7 or greater in their last semester.
