Do you want to make a difference?

Do you have an idea you want to share?

Your voice counts, have your say!

MEETING IS OPEN TO ALL CONCORDIA STUDENTS.

What could you do with an extra $150?

Participate in a SIMPLE online study, at your convenience, and you will be entered in a draw for your chance to win $150!

This study is called Would You Watch a Student News Report? Tell us what you think! In this survey, you will watch a sample student news report and provide feedback.

If you are interested in participating in this study in exchange for 1 entry in the draw, please go to <http://bit.ly/cuestudentnews>. It's just 30 minutes of your time and absolutely pain-free!

But hurry! There are limited spots available 😊 Act now to secure your chance to win!

SMOKE RESPONSIBLY

As you know, Concordia University of Edmonton's campus is now a smoke-free campus. Smoking of any kind and the use of tobacco products are not allowed anywhere on CUE property.

Understanding that smokers are now gathering in public areas, we do expect our students, faculty and staff to continue to be good neighbours and show respect to the neighbourhood and environment surrounding campus.

Please do not toss your cigarette butts into the River Valley, people's yards or on campus, but dispose of them correctly and safely in proper receptacles.

We are committed to promoting health and wellness for the whole CUE community and believe that providing you with a clean, healthy, smoke-free environment to study, learn, play, visit and live in, is one of the best ways to achieve this.

Check the website at concordia.ab.ca/smoke-free for further information, including access to the policy and quitting smoking resources.

Research Cluster on Linguistics & Language Education proudly invites you to a presentation

An Educational Experience in Asia: Japan, Thailand and Indonesia

Date: Wednesday November 21, 2018

Time: Noon-1pm, Venue: HA 206

Speaker: Dr. Mark Loo, Associate Professor, Mihalcheon School of Management

Dr. Mark Loo will share with you his recent sabbatical experience at partner universities in Tokyo and Bangkok, and in a partner affiliated university in Jakarta. A Study Abroad program will help you build cultural intelligence as you learn to appreciate differences, enhance problem skills learning different perspectives to approaching a problem and thinking on your feet in a new environment, and improve adaptability and communication skills even in simple routines such as ordering food and asking directions. You will observe different learning and teaching styles, and develop patience towards others and yourself. The Study Abroad training and experience will make you a more sensitive individual towards international and intercultural issues, and increase your market value in the employment market.

THROUGH ANCIENT STARS
CONCORDIA CONCERT CHOIR
JORDAN VAN BIERT, CONDUCTOR

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2018, at 3:00 pm
TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH
10014–81 Ave., Edmonton

The closing arc of the circle of life, full of rich and tender imagery both sensory and spiritual, threads through this portrait of a waning season. The poignance and universality of penitence and praise, comfort and peace is reflected in a mix of sacred and secular repertoire from across the Americas and Europe, including favourites by Brahms, Mendelssohn, Whitacre, Gjeilo, and Togni.

The Concert Choir, directed this year by Jordan Van Biert, is comprised of 30 auditioned singers of university age from various disciplines and interests.

Concordia students, faculty, and staff are each entitled to one free ticket for this concert, available from Alumni Hall 306. Further tickets are available for $20 for adults and $15 for students and seniors from Tix on the Square (780.420.1757), the Concordia Bookstore, or at the door. Special Family Admission: $40 (available at the door only).

Invest in your financial well-being

MAKE INFORMED DECISIONS

The more you know and understand about your financial rights and responsibilities, the easier it is to avoid costly surprises and to reach your financial goals. We all have a responsibility to inform ourselves of fees, rates, terms and penalties associated with financial services and products.

Follow #FLM2018 for tips and tools on how to invest in your financial well-being and visit Canada.ca/Financial-Literacy-Month.

Ask questions and read the fine print before signing any agreements for financial products or services. <https://goo.gl/wL9EBC>

Banks must obtain your permission before they can issue a credit card or raise your limit. <https://goo.gl/6m2PKN>

Have you been offered balance protection insurance on your credit card? Before you agree, there are many things you should consider. <https://goo.gl/FHYLXZ>

Not sure which credit card is right for you? Make sure you shop around to find the best deal and a card that suits your needs. @FCACan has an online Credit Card Comparison Tool that can help. <https://goo.gl/fX9z5z>

All costs should be disclosed when you open a bank account. <https://goo.gl/cqfJ4m>

The @Financial Consumer Agency of Canada \(FCAC\) is responsible for protecting consumers of financial products and services. The Agency has the tools, tips and resources to help consumers better understand their rights and responsibilities when dealing with a financial institution.

Everyone has certain rights and responsibilities when dealing with a financial institution. As a consumer, you have a responsibility to inform yourself of fees, rates, terms, and penalties associated with financial services and products. Your financial institution must, in turn, give you clear information. Learn more about your rights and responsibilities: Canada.ca/It-Pays-To-Know.

It's important to shop around, do your research, and choose carefully.
