CUCA Job Opportunities

Student Instructors for “Adventures in Science” Summer Camp

“Adventures in Science” is an annual summer camp for children aged 6 to 12. Children will be engaged in various science activities from the following disciplines:

- (1) Biology and Environmental Science
- (2) Chemistry
- (3) Mathematics and Computing Science
- (4) Physics

We are hiring student science instructors to facilitate the activities. In return for your excellent help, you'll gain important and rewarding experience in teaching science and interacting with school-age children. A reference letter will be provided to all instructors requesting it. This year's camp will be offered from July 28 – August 1, 2014. All positions require a clean criminal records check.

Science Instructor

Duties: Science Instructors are assigned to a specific age group and will facilitate the science program throughout the week. The instructors will be paid $700/week (+4% vacation pay) and training will be provided. The instructors will be responsible for:

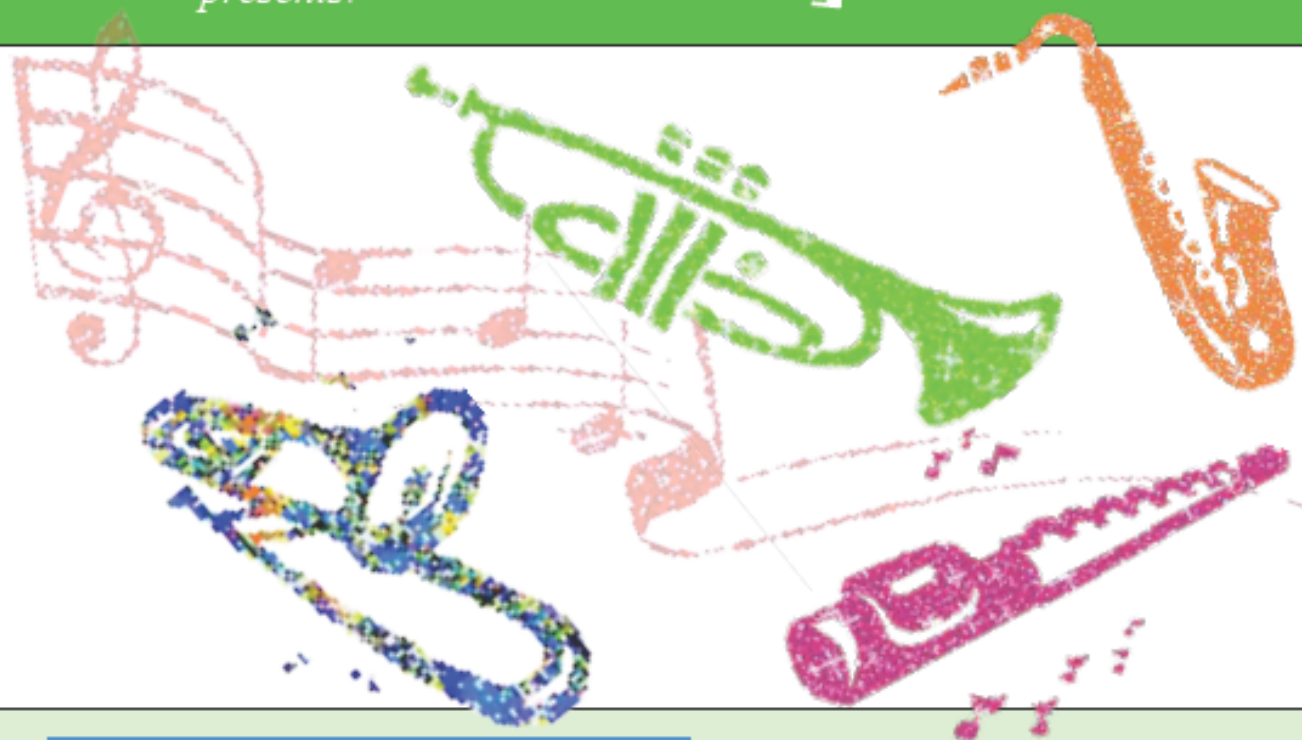

- Teaching science labs from various disciplines
- Managing student behaviour and enforcing safety procedures in science laboratories
- Planning and conducting group activities with students
- Supervise students during snack and lunch time
- Supervise students during the drop-off and pick-up times and keep track of all students in their group.

Please send resume to the Science Camp Coordinators, Mariola Janowicz (mariola.janowicz@concordia.ab.ca) or Craig Richter (craig.richter@concordia.ab.ca). We'd like to thank all those whose apply but only those who are selected for the interview will be contacted.
