THANK YOU FROM THE FACULTY OF SCIENCE

Greetings everyone,

The organizers of the Faculty of Science 2015 Science Camp would like to formally thank the following individuals and departments for their generous support of our science camp. This year was our largest enrollment in science camp with 43 campers registered. We would like to thank Dr. Maureen Stratton for the use of their education classrooms in the Ralph King Center and Dr. John Washington and Dr. Patrick Kamau for their continuing financial support. For material support and gifts in kind we would like to thank, Dorota Jakobs, Kerry McKinnon, and Scott Bancarz. We also would like to thank the following departments ( Finance, Human Resources, Plant Operations, Biological and Environmental Sciences, and Physical Sciences) for their continuing support of our science camp. We would also like to thank Neil Baillie and Aramark for their catering of our science camp. Next years science camp is tentatively scheduled for July 25th-29th 2016. Thank you all for helping us run a successful science camp.

Sincerely,
Craig Richter
Mariola Janowicz

Hiring Student Staff for The Writing Centre

Perhaps English is your specialty and you enjoy assisting others with developing their writing skills?

The Writing Centre, through Student Life & Learning, requires a student with a concentration or major in English (minimum 3.4 GPA) to provide learning support to students who access The Writing Centre. Must be a self-motivated, people-oriented person who is able to work collaboratively with staff and faculty.

We require a responsible, reliable student who is available to work 10 hours per week from Sept 14, 2015 through to April 30, 2016. Hours may vary. Experience in science writing an asset.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. A complete job description is available from the Student Life & Learning Office. If interested, please pick up an application form to complete and submit along with your resume to:

AUDITIONS

The Glorious 12th

by Raymond Storey directed by Caroline Howarth

This fall, Theatre at Concordia presents The Glorious 12th, a Canadian play set in Southern Ontario. 1927 was a difficult year for the Orange Lodge. The House of Commons was now officially bilingual. French appeared on Canadian postage stamps and refugees from continental Europe were arriving in record numbers to share in the Canada's prosperity. The Mackay's fear that their way of life is under siege and must be protected. Into this atmosphere, opportunistic Klansmen crossed the Canadian border to prey on the anxiety of citizens. The story of the play focusing on the Mackay family is fiction but its historical background is not.

Auditions

In the Trish & Al Huehn Theatre

Tuesday, September 8 -- 4:00 to 6:00

Wednesday, September 9 -- 4:00 to 6:00

If you wish to read the play prior to auditions please stop by the Greenroom to sign out a copy

Auditions will consist of a cold reading. You are not required to prepare a monologue.

If you are not able to attend the auditions please come and see Caroline Howarth in A201-A to arrange an alternate time

Students interested in stage management or production support should attend the audition to fill out an information sheet

Rehearsals will begin on Friday, September 11

The Rehearsal schedule will be finalized when casting is completed but will be on Monday, Wednesday, Friday with Saturdays added in mid-September

Production opens Friday, October 30

For more information contact Caroline Howarth in the A201-A or caroline.howarth@concordia.ab.ca
