HAVE A SAFE HALLOWEEN

Check out the link for some tips from the Edmonton Police Service for children and parents to keep safe while trick or treating for Halloween.

Remember to change your smoke alarm batteries and test them and your carbon monoxide detectors to keep safe this winter.

LEARN TO PROTECT YOURSELF

Throughout the year, the Edmonton Police Service (EPS) holds a one-day personal safety course that prepares participants to be a 'hard target' so that they can defend themselves against criminals. The next Hard Target session is scheduled for Saturday, November 30, 2013 at the EPS Griesbach Training Centre from 9 a.m. to 5.p.m. This is open to all members of the community, and this session's "admission" is a toy donation to Santa's Anonymous.

For further information on the course including future dates and registration, please visit: <http://www.hardtargget.ca/>

FALL TUITION IS PAST DUE.

Students Who Have A Past Due Balance Are Encumbered. Please check your account information online through Concordia's website. Fees can be paid at the Student Accounts Office during normal office hours. Fees can also be paid through your bank by setting up Concordia University College of Alberta as a biller and using your ID number as your account number. Fees can also be paid by credit card through online student services on Concordia's website <http://onlineservices.concordia.ab.ca/student/> . If you have questions or need answers please inquire at the student accounts office.

Your CSA benefit plan is now live! This means Great West Life has received and processed all the student names from Concordia University that are on the CSA Benefit Plan. Any outstanding receipts you may have incurred between Sept. 1st, to present can now be submitted for reimbursement.

This also means your "My Benefit Card" is ready to use at the pharmacy for instant claims on prescriptions. Download or print your card today at Mystudentplan.ca . Not sure what to do? See Heather in her office in A212. She'd be happy to show you how it works and answer your questions!

READY TO GRADUATE?

Did you know? ... Concordia degrees are now conferred three times a year in September, January, and May. If you complete your degree requirements prior to May 2014, you can, if eligible, receive your degree(s) prior to May Convocation, on January 31, 2014.

In order to be considered for any of the degree conferral dates listed above, you must submit an “Application for Degree/Certificate” form and any outstanding documents (if applicable) to the Registrar’s Office (HA 120) by the following dates:

For January 31, 2014 Conferral:

- Application for Degree or Certificate due November 30
- Outstanding documents (if applicable) due December 19

For May 14, 2014 Conferral and Convocation Ceremony:

- Application for Degree or Certificate due October 1
- Outstanding documents (if applicable) due February 1

For September 30, 2014 Conferral:

- “Application for Degree/Certificate” due August 1
- Outstanding documents (if applicable) due August 31

PLEASE NOTE: Students who opt for a degree conferral date prior to May are still most welcome to attend the May Convocation Ceremony and participate in all of the regular graduation activities!

“Application for Degree/Certificate” forms are available on our website under “Printable Forms” and at Student & Enrolment Services (HA 120).

If you have questions about degree conferrals please contact the Registrar’s Office at 780-479-9250, by email at registrar@concordia.ab.ca , or speak to a Registration Advisor in Student & Enrolment Services (HA 120).

*Late applications for May Conferral and Convocation will still be accepted until November 1. However, students applying after October 1 may not be notified of their eligibility until April.
