Edmonton Women's Opportunity Award from Soroptimist International

Soroptimist International is an organization of business and professional women seeking to help other women. The Women's Opportunity Awards aid women who have faced economic and personal hardships, and are seeking to gain additional skills, training and education. The program helps women who serve as the primary wage earners for their families to enter or return to the work force, or to improve their employment status.

If you feel that you may be eligible for this award, contact Meta Flemke, Awards Chair, at 780-427-6527 or 780-436-9395, to request an application form. DEADLINE: December 15, 2010.

Terry Fox Humanitarian Award Program

The Terry Fox Humanitarian Award Program ($7,000 per year for a maximum of four years) was established in 1982 to encourage the benevolence of young Canadians and to recognize humanitarian volunteer work.

There is no set discipline students must study in order to receive the award, but they must continuously demonstrate a strong performance in academics, athletics and volunteerism.

The deadline for this prestigious awards program is February 1, 2011. The program is open to students currently studying towards their first university degree. Visit the program's website at www.terryfoxawards.ca for an application form.

The Peter Elzinga Family Foundation Scholarships

The Peter Elzinga Family Foundation was established for the purpose of awarding Educational Scholarships which are intended to promote the advancement of education and to provide an incentive and means for anyone to continue learning.

On a yearly basis the Foundation awards one (1) to five (5) scholarships ranging in value from $600 to $2,000.

Scholarships are available to residents of Alberta who are currently students and to those residents who are returning to school to further their education.

Awards are granted on the basis of financial need, community involvement, and leadership skills with the intent to encourage the pursuit of further education.

The deadline to apply: June 1, 2011. Visit www.peterelzinga.com
