Library News

The Book Arts

Library Gallery

Now until January 28th!

The Book Arts exhibition explores books as objects of beauty, personal expression and curiosity, and celebrates the imagination, inventiveness and skill of the artists who produce them. The show features 29 examples of work by artists from across Alberta as well as from Saskatchewan and British Columbia. Many of the artists are members of the Calgary and Edmonton chapters of the Canadian Book Binders and Book Artists Guild.

Curator, Dean Tatam Reeves notes that The Book Arts exhibition was inspired by the important work of community libraries that provide public access to Alberta art.

The Book Arts was developed with the assistance of Arts on Atlantic Gallery, Calgary, and the Canadian Book Artists and Book Binders Guild (CBBAG), Calgary Chapter. The exhibition was produced by the Esplanade Arts & Heritage Centre in Medicine Hat for the Alberta Foundation for the Arts Travelling Exhibition Program (TREX), southeast region.

Did your professor assign Reserve readings?

Everything on Reserve in the library is listed in the online Reserve Room or in a binder at the Circulation Desk. Search by Subject, Instructor, Course Number or Course Name.

<http://library.concordia.ab.ca/services/reserveroom.php>

Be Careful! The overdue fines for Reserves are higher than for items from the regular library collection. If the reserve item is a 2 hour loan, the fine is 50¢/per hour. If the reserve is a 1, 3 or 7 day loan, the fine is $6.00/per day.

International Opportunities

Deadlines are fast approaching!

Alberta Smithsonian Internship (ASIP)

ASIP offers students “a chance to experience history” (Vue, 2009) and the opportunity to gain international work experience in their field of study. Each year, the ASIP funds 10 interns, either at the Smithsonian complex in Washington DC (not to be confused with the Washington Centre) or at one of its several affiliated sites. Internships range from two months to a maximum of four months between May and December each year.

Submit application package by February 15th, 2011.

Alberta- Saxony Internship Program – Germany

Broaden your knowledge and enhance your skills and abilities. Internships are open to students in all faculties and fields of study and are matched to students’ skills and interests. Placements are three to five months long in the eastern part of Germany. Language training is provided for free.

Funding is guaranteed – travel bursary and stipend

Application Deadline – January 17, 2011 (to start in January 2012).

THE WASHINGTON CENTRE

The Washington Center is accepting applications for summer programs in London, England and Sydney, Australia. These programs combine a 10-day seminar in Washington with eight weeks of internship and rigorous academic coursework abroad.

The experiences students have while interning, studying, and living abroad for a semester or summer are truly transformational, building a strong foundation for their future professional, academic, and personal lives.

Summer 2011 Intern Abroad Programs

Program Dates: May 15—July 24, 2011.

Application Deadline: February 25, 2011.

CHAPEL NEWS for JANUARY 2011

Let's Talk

Have you read "The Shack"? Starting the evening of January 10 we will look at this very popular and sometimes controversial book.

Time: Monday, 7:00 - 8:30 pm. Drop in.

Location: Chaplaincy Centre, S 204.

The Question of God

Come watch "The Question Of God", a PBS series that contrasts the lives of C.S. Lewis, one of the great apologists for the Christian faith and Sigmund Freud, the pioneer of psychoanalysis and a self-proclaimed atheist. This series shows how, during the 20th century, each responded to the challenges of war, sorrow, and scientific inquiry, and raises questions about God, sexuality, faith, meaning in life, happiness, and the relationship of scholarship and faith. A must for religion and psych majors.

Time: Wednesdays at 12:00 until 12:30. Bring your lunch.

Location: Chaplaincy Centre, S 204
