Serving Communities
Internship Program

The Serving Communities Internship Program (SCiP): Building Your Future as You Help Communities Grow

The Serving Communities Internships Program (SCiP) will award Alberta post-secondary students a $1,000 bursary for completing an internship with one of the province's voluntary sector/non-profit organizations.

If you are a student enrolled in a one of Alberta's 26 publicly-funded post-secondary institutions who:

- is interested in learning more about voluntary sector/non-profit organizations
- has skills, interests, experience and innovation to share
- wants to be a great leader of tomorrow in a strong and prosperous Alberta

AND

- can use a $1,000 bursary to support you in completing your post-secondary education then the Serving Communities Internship Program (SCiP) is for you!

SCiP matches the specialized skills and interests of students with the needs of voluntary sector and non-profit organizations and brings them together into internship opportunities (both traditional and virtual) for students. It doesn't matter what program or faculty you're in, this is your chance to help build stronger communities, get on-the-ground work experience in a field you're interested in, to help build your resumé and complete your post-secondary education!

Whether your passion is in business, health sciences, education, law, arts, sciences, trades and industry, information technology or other ... whether you're in a certificate (including apprenticeship), diploma or degree program ... whether you're in an undergraduate or graduate program ... whether you're a part-time or full-time student ... an on-campus, distance or on-line learner ...

SCiP is for you!

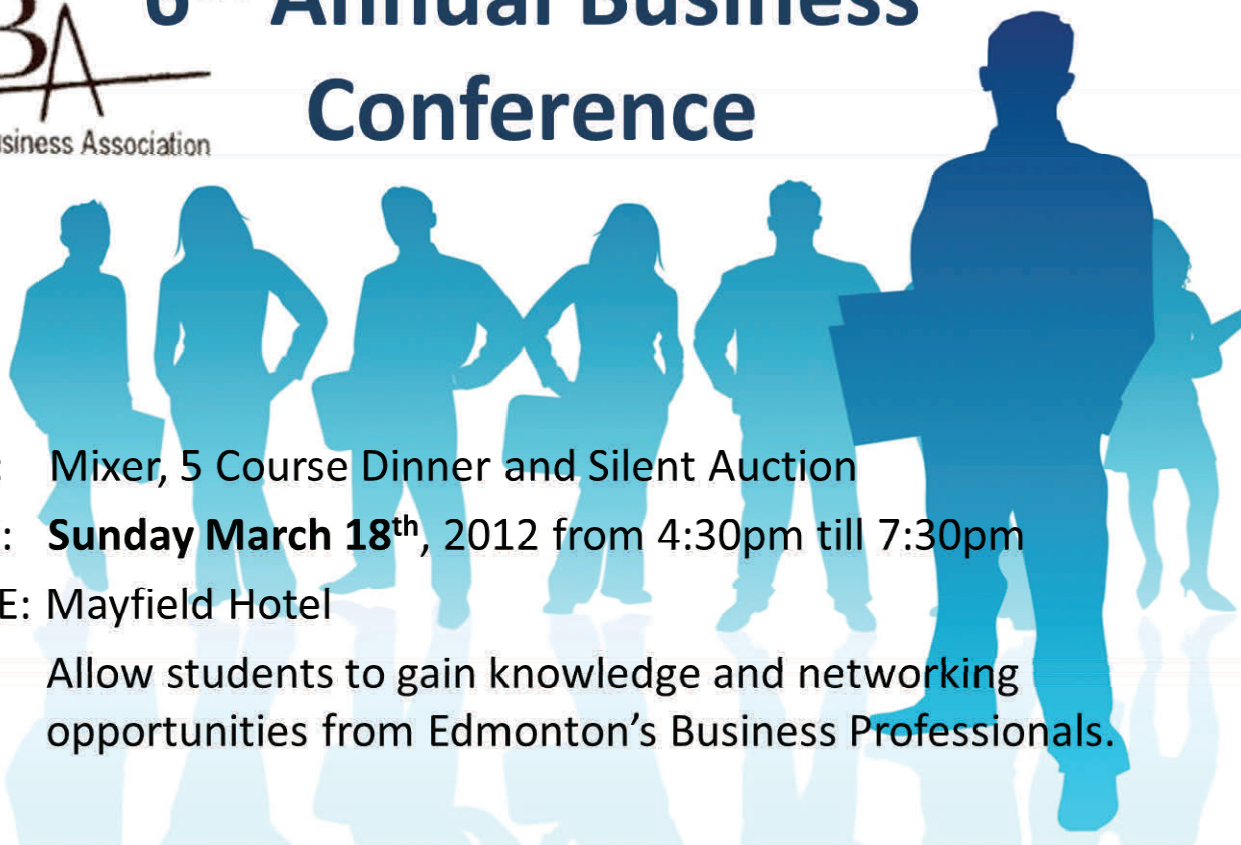

Apply now! joinscip.ca

Check joinscip.ca for more information about SCiP opportunities. Who knows, the next step in your future could be just a SCiP away!

SCiP is a program of the Government of Alberta, managed by Volunteer Alberta, inspired and supported by Alberta Student Executive Council, Alberta Graduate Council, and the Council of Alberta University Students.
