LIBRARY NEWS

February 7th 2012 would be the 200th birthday of the famous Victorian author Charles Dickens. The event is being celebrated internationally as “Dickens 2012” and Concordia will be hosting a Dickens Day celebration of our own. The library has a variety of displays planned in honor of Mr. Dickens and his times.

We are asking anyone who has items that we can use to decorate the library or put on display to drop off the item (s) at the Circulation Desk or contact Jenna Innes (jenna.innes@concordia.ab.ca). Perhaps you have an oil lamp, an inkwell, or some other interesting object to share with us!

In the meantime, read about Victorian Era history or literature in one of the books on our Dickens Day display or take a peek at the First Edition Dickens' works on loan to the library from Dr. Ruth Glancy.

BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (AFTER DEGREE)

Concordia's Bachelor of Education (After Degree) Program is now accepting applications for Fall 2012.

Questions? Visit Student and Enrolment Services' to book an appointment with an Admissions Advisor, or visit our website at www.concordia.ab.ca to apply.
