Concordia Connections at the Fringe

Our own Mireille Rijavec and longtime Community Chorus/
Singspiration accompanist, Roxanne Classen, star in:

Lost in Montmartre

Friday, August 16 9pm
Saturday, August 17 2pm
Sunday, August 18 5pm
Wednesday, August 21 7pm
Thursday, August 22 10pm
Friday, August 23 7pm
Saturday, August 24 10pm

BYOV #43
Campus Saint-Jean Auditorium
McMahon Pavillion
8406-91 Street

When a genius dies, the artists devour his corpus. Erik Satie's wake takes place at the cabaret, where his friends (and otherwise) present his lost shadow play. Absinthe makes the heart grow fonder.

Starring:

Vincent Hyspa: Timothy Anderson
Claudette Le Simple: Roxanne Classen
Gerta Überstab: Eva Colmers

Joline Poseuse: Laura Jones
Tristan Tzava: Jon Patterson
Paulette Darty: Mireille Rijavec

Directed and dramaturged by Eileen Sproule. Lighting by Witold Kurpinski.

Erik Satie composed the songs and the shadow opera with texts by Contamine de Latour and Vincent Hyspa. Mireille Rijavec and Timothy Anderson translated the texts. Eva Colmers created the shadow puppets and set. The music was adapted by Roxanne Classen and the framing device of the spiteful wake was brought in by Eileen Sproule. The cast as a whole added throughout.

Tickets are $12.50 for Adults and $10 for Students and Seniors

Concordia's Professor of Drama, Randy Ritz, stars as Sigmund Freud in:

FREUD'S LAST SESSION, by Mark St. Germain

"Substance, wit and poignancy."

(Variety)

"Tantalizing...
... well-written.
Sharp."

(New York Times)

Did an afternoon meeting
with avowed atheist
Sigmund Freud inspire

Christian apologist C. S. Lewis to create his most personal - and most enduring - defense of God...? In this moving, witty "what if..?" scenario, a dying Freud summons Lewis (then an ambitious young Oxford professor) to his London study - for reasons that gradually become clear.

As a result, on the day in 1939 that England declares war on Germany (beginning World War II), the two men trade body blows and punchlines about what they each love and fear: war, death, God, sex, suffering... and their fathers (NOT their mothers...!!) - and we become witnesses to the kind of passionate, mindful, moving exchange that has forever spurred the human imagination.

Directed & Designed by Daniel VanHeyst. With Randy Ritz as Sigmund Freud & Michael Peng as C. S. Lewis

Student Life and the International department are seeking student volunteers to partner with international students arriving for the Fall Semester 2013.

As a “buddy” you will help international students transition into their new life at Concordia.

Students will receive official recognition for their volunteer efforts.

For more information or an application contact:
Student Life, HA114, Peter Schiemann Centre
Phone: 780 479-9241

WHERE WILL YOUR BUDDY COME FROM?

WANTED

Tutors for the Concordia Tutor Registry

---

- Are you particularly knowledgeable in a specific subject area?
  - Are you interested in being available to help your fellow Concordia students succeed and getting paid to do so?
  - Would your professors endorse your knowledge and ability?

Student Life & Learning is updating the Concordia Tutor Registry in order to help serve the tutoring needs of our students, including those using Learning Accommodation Services. The hourly rate you charge for your tutoring services depends upon your level of education and experience, as well as the student's budget. (Note: this is a contact list only, not employment.)

---

To be considered for inclusion in the Tutor Registry, please complete a Tutor Application Package, available from Student Life & Learning.

Student applicants are required to submit the following: a current resume of your education, work and volunteer experience, two instructor references, a tutor reference, if experienced, an official transcript and verification of your academic status. Tutors must also have successfully completed at least 54 university credits and have attained a GPA of 2.7 or greater in their last semester.
