

Coordinator for The Writing Centre

Is English your specialty ?

Do you enjoy assisting others with developing their writing skills?

The Writing Centre, through Student Life & Learning, requires a coordinator with a concentration or major in English (minimum 3.4 GPA) to provide learning support to students who access The Writing Centre. Must be a self-motivated, people-oriented person who is able to work with students.

We require a responsible, reliable person who is available to work 10 hours per week starting in late September through to April, 2014. Hours can be scheduled to suit your availability. Experience in science writing an asset. Deadline for applications: August 23rd, 2013, or until filled. A complete job description is available from the Student Life & Learning Office. If interested, please pick up an application form to complete and submit along with your resume.

WELCOME WEEK

SEPTEMBER 2-6

THANK YOU K- DAY VOLUNTEERS!!

Karen Leonhardt and Dan Peacocke wish to extend this huge thank you to all the volunteers who participated in the car park fundraiser, during K-Days.

Your patience with, and support of, our parking fundraiser is very much appreciated. We are very pleased to announce that we surpassed our goal this year. We're absolutely thrilled to report that we parked 5500 vehicles over the 10 days.

Thank you to all of you that made a point of lifting our spirits on your way in or out, whether it was through a donation, a treat of food, drink or friendly conversation, or even just a friendly wave and smile. These were long work days for our crew, made much brighter by the sharing of your spirit.

Lastly, we want to acknowledge our tremendous group of volunteers (hockey players, game day staff, fans, parents, alumni) who enthusiastically welcomed to our campus over 15,000 people in the past ten days. Not only did their volunteer effort allow us to surpass our financial goal, they also presented a warm, welcoming and friendly face of Concordia University to the community, which is of course of incalculable value.

Thank you,
Karen Leonhardt & Dan Peacocke

WANTED

Tutors for the Concordia Tutor Registry

Student Life & Learning is updating the Concordia Tutor Registry in order to help serve the tutoring needs of our students, including those using Learning Accommodation Services. The hourly rate paid for these services is dependent upon a tutor's education level and experience, as well as the student's budget.

To be considered for inclusion in the Tutor Registry, please complete a Tutor Application Package, available from Student Life & Learning.

Student applicants are required to submit the following: a current resume of your education, work and volunteer experience, two instructor references, a tutor reference if experienced, an official transcript and verification of academic status. Tutors must also have successfully completed at least 54 university credits and have attained a GPA of 2.7 or greater in their last semester.
