University Entrance Scholarship Deadline

Do you have family or friends who are graduating from high school and looking for a great university experience starting in Sept 2015? Would he/she qualify for a University Entrance Scholarship based on high school grades (minimum $1,000 up to $3,750 and is renewable)?

To be considered, high school students must submit an application for admission by April 1, 2015. That's all there is to it. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered so please encourage undecided family and friends to keep their options open by applying today.

Looking for Scholarships?

Are you getting good grades this semester? Are you involved in volunteer extracurricular activities? Are you looking for more scholarships to help pay for school?

The Financial Aid and Awards office regularly receives information about external scholarship opportunities. You can find this information posted on the Financial Aid and Awards webpage under Latest News.

from his book

You're Not as Crazy as I Think:

Dialogue in a World of Loud Voices
and Hardened Opinions

RANDAL RAUSER

speaks on

“How People with Differing Religious Beliefs Should Relate to Each Other”

MONDAY | MARCH 30 | 2015 | 12 NOON

Hole Academic Ctr | Rm HA015 | Concordia University College of Alberta

Dr. Rauser is a broadly evangelical Christian theologian and apologist. (Visit his website at www.randalrauser.com.) He is Professor of Historical Theology at Taylor Seminary, Edmonton. He will be speaking with us on the basis of his book of the title above. The book is a plea for respectful dialogue, listening, and understanding between people of differing religious beliefs. It includes chapters entitled, ‘Those I Disagree with Are Probably Not Ignorant, Idiotic, Insane, or Immoral,’ ‘Not all Animal Rights Activists are Wackos,’ and ‘Not All Atheists are Fools.’

Join the discussion on how we should relate to each other.

—Public Welcome—

meet

Canadian Hockey star

Kendra Fisher

Let Her Story Inspire You.

March 30th
Auditorium from 12-1pm

Is there REALLY any HOPE?

Dr. Jonathan Strand, Prof. of Philosophy

speaks

TUES | MAR 31 | 10:45-11:05 AM | Auditorium

Dr. Strand will be considering whether there really is a solid basis for hope in a world full of suffering and evil. Things go seriously wrong. I am not what I should be. And all our lives come to a rather quick end. Dr. Strand will maintain that despite all this, there actually is a solid basis for hope.

Come and listen!

STAGE FRIGHT!!!!

NEW THERAPY GROUP FOR STAGE FRIGHT AT THE CENTRE FOR COGNITIVE BEHAVIORAL THERAPY

8 weekly sessions on Wednesdays 6:30-8:30 pm; Commencing Spring 2015

Is this group right for you?

- Do you feel nervous or uncomfortable in performance situations such as raising your hand in class, class presentations, or talking to professors?
- Do you worry that others will notice how anxious you feel, and that they will think negatively of you for showing signs of anxiety, e.g., blushing, sweating, shaking, stuttering, having a panic attack, or not knowing what to say?
- Do you have “safe” places, people, or routines that you use to reduce your anxiety?
- Do you want to meet other students, who understand what you are going through and have similar experiences

DESCRIPTION: Exposure based therapy is an effective treatment for stage fright. Through this intervention, we assist our clients to confront their fears and reduce avoidance of performance situations within a safe and non-judgmental environment.

COSTS: Our fees are set in accordance with the Psychologists Association of Alberta's 2014 recommended fee schedule of $60.00/50 minute session. Payment of $960 is due at the first session. Insurance receipts will be provided. Private insurance for psychological services may cover these fees.

What are the benefits of attending the group?

- Learn about performance and social anxiety
- Understand what leads to and maintains your performance anxiety
- Learn to identify and distance yourself from your critical and self-defeating thoughts
- Learn strategies to help you feel less anxious & more effective in performance situations
- Practice presentation skills in a safe environment with a trained professional and supportive group members who know what it is like to have social anxiety
- Receive support and encouragement while you practice being afraid
- Most importantly, gain confidence and overcome your fears of performance situations!!!!

Contact us today at (780) 455-8133 or intakeccbt@gmail.com to reserve your place for the upcoming social anxiety group.

Tansi!

I would like to take this opportunity to invite fellow organizations, stakeholders and our membership on Treaty 6 territory to join the Canadian Native Friendship Centre on the afternoon of April 9th from 1-4 pm at our Open House to introduce and bless our upcoming Today's Leaders Youth Project.

We hope to motivate youth with this project through a variety of means that include: goal setting, public speaking and providing opportunities for re-engagement in the education system and the work force. With this, we are looking to the greater Edmonton community as partners and supporters of this program and would love to be able to share more with you about this at our Open House!

Please RSVP to Showna at: todayleaderscnfcedmonton@shaw.ca or call 780-761-1900 to confirm your attendance. Snacks and refreshments will be served; we hope to see you there!
