THE CHRIS BENEDICT AWARD NOMINATE SOMEONE TODAY!

This award was established by the Concordia Students' Association (CSA) in recognition of Christopher Benedict who in his final year of study at Concordia was diagnosed with Hodgkin Lymphoma, a type of cancer. Christopher was active in student life and serving as Vice President of Finance for the CSA in his final year.

This annual $500 award is available to a student who:

- Has demonstrated perseverance in the face of adversity
- Inspires others to succeed when facing adverse conditions
- Has a positive outlook toward school and life
- Is registered as a part-time or full time student
- Presents a minimum GPA of 2.0

Applications are available on the Financial Aid & Awards Brochure rack and our financial aid webpage under Latest News. Please submit both application pages (Part A & Part B) to the Enrolment Services Office (HA120) by March 2, 2015.
