Student Book Marketplace

Schiemann Centre (HA114)

January, 6th –14th, 2011.

The Student Book Marketplace is organized by the CSA and Student Affairs for students to buy and sell used textbooks.

Looking to buy or sell textbooks?

Go to Scheimann Centre to list or look at “Books for Sale”.

HA114 (Schiemann Centre) is reserved from January 6th to 14th, 2011 for this event. Listing pages will be provided on tables for students to list the textbooks they have for sale. The Book Marketplace is designed to simplify the buying and selling of used textbooks on campus.

Listings will be identified by:

1. Which class/course the textbook is for
2. Textbook title and edition
3. Price of the book
4. Contact information

All listing pages will be organized in alphabetical order by the name of each discipline or program.

WRITING CENTRE

The Writing Centre is a free service that provides support for teaching and learning through writing for all Concordia students, staff and faculty. Throughout the academic year we will offer the following range of services designed to promote learning through writing.

One-on-one consultations: students will book an appointment to receive individual feedback from an experienced instructor. Appointments will be one hour in length and are booked by placing your name in the desired time slot on the sign-up sheet on the door of room HA 115.

Drop-in hours: at busy times of the year, the Writing Centre will also offer drop-in appointments. These appointments will be only twenty minutes long.

Writing seminars: group seminars focusing on many aspects of writing at university, including essay writing, lab reports, thesis statements, referencing, introductions and conclusions, grammar and style, and more.

In-class presentations: designed to support in-class assignments tailored to a specific course requirement.

The staff of the Writing Centre do not edit or proofread papers, but teach students how to edit and proofread their own work. Staff do not comment on the accuracy of facts or suggest factual content and will not guarantee or predict a passing mark or specific letter grade. Responsibility for work rests with the student.

New Location: HA 115

Mondays and Wednesdays: 9:00 – 1:30p.m

The Writing Centre will open on Monday, January 17, 2011.

CHAPEL NEWS for JANUARY 2011

Epiphany is the season of the church year when we see the impact of the coming of our Lord as a child in Bethlehem. While the world moves on to other things, the Christian community reflects on what Jesus' presence among us means for our lives as individuals and our mission in the world.

Epiphany calls us forth to be light in a dark world as we share the good news of God's loving action with those who have not been introduced to their loving God. That is why our chapel themes often focus on missions during the opening days of this semester. God has called us to share our lives and our faith with others. May our many mission activities off campus enable us to be stronger missionaries on campus.

PPM (Pondering Pastoral Ministry) This group—which will most certainly change its name—is for those thinking about entering pastoral ministry, a place to ask questions, check out ideas, meet others along the road, and join in fellowship with present pastors. If you are interested email Pastor Garry with a time that works best for you to meet.

Let's Talk

Have you read "The Shack"? Starting the evening of January 10 we will look at this very popular and sometimes controversial book.

Time: Monday, 7:00 - 8:30 pm. Drop in.

Location: Chaplaincy Centre, S 204.

The Question of God

Come watch "The Question Of God", a PBS special series that contrasts the lives of C.S. Lewis, one of the great apologists for the Christian faith and Sigmund Freud, the pioneer of psychoanalysis and a self-proclaimed atheist. This series shows how, during the 20th century, each responded to the challenges of war, sorrow, and scientific inquiry, and raises questions about God, sexuality, faith, meaning in life, happiness, and the relationship of scholarship and faith. A must for religion and psych majors.

Time: Wednesdays at 12:00 until 12:30. Bring your lunch.

Location: Chaplaincy Centre, S 204
