Theatre at CUE Presents...

This March, Theatre at CUE is excited to present William Shakespeare's delightful romantic comedy A Midsummer Night's Dream. Our Dream is staged by one of Edmonton's most beloved actor/directors, Chris Bullough.

More strange than true. Join us in the forest for Shakespeare's wonderful antic fable of comedy, romance, mischief and transformation. When mere mortals cross paths with the likes of Oberon, Titania and the mischievous Puck, the world will never be the same.

Costumes are by Betty Kolodziej who has created wonderful costumes for numerous productions around Edmonton including many for CUE and Opera Nuova. The production design is by Concordia's multi-talented Technical Director Josiah Hiemstra. The production features live original music and choreography created by the student cast members.

A Midsummer Night's Dream features student performers and production crew from the Concordia Community: Lovers - Lynnea Bartel Nickel, Jaden Demas, Christopher Gaertner, Emma Reid; Fairies: Liv Babiak, Tomide Bamigboye, Joseph Chartier, Daniela Fernadez, Paige Kaminski, Darian King, Alexa Larocque, Tadiwa Mupanguri, Jessica Penhale - Laxson, Lauren Smiley; Mechanicals - Alex Berry, Joshua Eastman, Riley Frazier, Tyson Goudreau, Nathan Hall, Scott Heatcoat, Drake McInnes, Jacob Rempel, Daniel Rogers, Matt Troppman; and Crew - Tyler Boessenkool, Regan Homeniuk, Jade Munsie, Krysta Schaffrick and Stephanie St. Onge.
