EVENING SESSION

Cyber Stalking - the impacts of technology and global community

The 2016 Diverse Voices Family Violence Conference is pleased to host an Evening Session for individuals who work directly with victims, on prevention and education of Cyber Stalking e i.e., educational institutions, junior & high schools, universities, school resource officers, parents, police, victim services, security officers, prosecutors and any others dealing with Cyber Stalking.

Guest Speakers - Cst. Nathan Ford & Cst. Chris Kirby

Our Guest Speakers are Public Speakers and Instructors in the fields of criminal harassment, domestic violence, proactive offender management and threat and risk assessment.

Through an informative presentation and a case study participants will observe how technology and today's social media trends have allowed stalkers and those committing criminal harassment gain access to their victim that would have required much more effort and exposure to their activities in the past.

Learning Objectives:

- i) Define the crime of cyber stalking from a legal perspective, and understand the lasting impact this crime can have on its victims.
- ii) Understand how stalking offenders utilize social media and the global community to control their victims.
- iii) Understand how the use of today's technology, including common devices used, and the methods that are utilized can be as effective from a distance.
- iv) Learn how to best protect themselves or those they are working with from the modern stalking offender.

Certificate of Attendance will be provided.

DATE: Thursday November 17, 2016

TIME: 7:00-9:00 pm (Doors open at 6:30 pm)

LOCATION: Fantasyland Hotel and Conference Centre

COST: $30 plus GST (includes light refreshments)

To REGISTER DV2016EveningSession or visit the website www.diverse-voices.com

Deadline for registration is November 15th. No walk in registrations.
