You may schedule two back-to-back appointments if a longer time is desired.

Writing Seminars: group seminars focusing on many aspects of writing at university, including essay writing, lab reports, thesis statements, referencing, introductions and conclusions, grammar and style, and more.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT INFORMATION

Alberta Health Care

Concordia is offering two opportunities for international students to apply for Alberta Health Care on Campus.

A registry agent, is coming to Concordia University to assist and accept applications for an Alberta Health Care Card. There will be a table set up outside of the CSA offices located in Alumni Hall on the following dates:

- Friday Sept. 20, from 10 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

International Students will need to bring the following with them:

- Passport
- Study Permit
- Registration Confirmation
- Proof of Address: This can be found on their acceptance letter; on a bill; lease agreement etc.

Alberta Health care cards will be processed and mailed out to the students from the registry agent within 5 - 10 days after application. There is no fee for this service.

Alberta Identification Card

Interested students, can also apply for an Alberta Identification Card.

Getting as Alberta Identification Card would be a valid form of government I.D. as an alternative to carrying around their passports. There is a small fee for this ID card and it is dependent on the students Study Permit. It would cost approximately $14.50 for a one year Alberta ID card, and approximately $25 for a two year ID card. This is not a requirement, but simply a suggestion for convenience.

PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGIOUS STUDIES COLLOQUIUM SERIES

“Without me you can do nothing: Jacques Maritain’s Resolution of the Problem of Evil”

Presented by Dr. Jason West, President and Academic Dean, Newman Theological College
The Colloquium series is free and open to the public

THE FIRST OF MONTHLY SCHEDULED PRESENTATIONS WILL BE:

MONDAY, SEPT. 23RD @ 4:00pm, CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, HA 015

The question of how a good God can create a world in which evil exists is a perennial philosophical and religious problem. In several works Catholic philosopher Jacques Maritain (1889-1973) appropriated the thought of Augustine and Aquinas to present an innovative synthesis to address this problem. Maritain aims to preserve the delicate balance between human freedom and the fundamental priority of God’s causal initiative in the line of good through grace. However, he argues that in the line of evil, it is the free creature that has the entire initiative, arguing provocatively that evil entails that the power of human freedom extends to the “annihilation” of the Divine action within the free agent. To commit evil is to destroy God’s work that is already taking place within us. The paper intends to show the reasons that led Maritain to this view and the way in which his resolution preserves the balance between human freedom and God’s priority and transcendence better than the typical competing views.
