Tempera painting and intaglio printmaking.

New art now on display in the library!

"My task is to reflect an intuitive, experiential perception of realities such as joy, mirth, wonder, aloneness, and mystery, pointing beyond myself. Small glimpses of heaven, in an earthly landscape, are meant to transport the mind to the transcendent."

POSTER CONTEST

1st Place: $500.00

2nd Place: $300.00

3rd Place: $100.00

Enter the Student Health 101 poster contest, SH 101 is looking for the best posters that encourage students toward healthier habits. They can be informative, entertaining, or somewhere in the middle. The contest is open to all submissions, from staff, faculty, as well as students. Any file format is fine, but PDF files are preferred.

Enter as many posters as you like. The posters should have positive messaging on issues facing students today-stress, flu shots, relationships, staying active, eating well, sleep, sexual responsibility, bystander intervention, or any other topic(s) that you may choose.

Winners will be selected based on popular voting. The winning poster will be featured in an upcoming issue of Student Health 101. The deadline to submit posters is June 25th, 2014.

Hello everyone!

With the first days of the "calendar" spring, but not in reality again, we are pleased to announce that we are opening the online registration for the "Adventures in Science"@Concordia 2014 and "Junior Leadership Program" on April 7th.

This year, the camp will run for 5 days from July 28 to August 1, 2014.

The time for kid's drop off/pickup and science activities did not change.

The registration fee for this year's camp did not change; it is $250/science camper (ages 6-12) and $100 for junior leaders (ages 13-16).

*Concordia employees and students, please inquire about on-campus employment rates

*Note that this year the registration is available "ONLINE"
We hope to see all of the children for yet another exciting week of "Adventures in Science"@Concordia.
See you all in July!
