Award Description

For the 2013-2014 academic year, one undergraduate and one graduate award be given to a Business, Commerce, Management, or Information Systems graduate and undergraduate student. Applicants must: a) have demonstrated strong leadership and work ethics qualities, in addition to an adequate academic performance; b) aim to pursue a career in internal auditing and consultancy upon graduation; and, c) be fully committed to passing all three Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) exam parts within 24 months of receiving their academic degree.

The award break down and payment procedures will be as follows: Each award recipient will be reimbursed for up to $1,000 for expenses associated with purchasing CIA exam prep material, IIA student membership, CIA application and testing fees. Purchase receipts for eligible expenses must be presented to the Edmonton chapter certification director within 24 months from the award winner's official date of graduation.

Eligibility

- Third or fourth student year status for undergraduates. Graduate applicants need to have been in their program for a minimum of three (3) semesters.
- Applicants must be pursuing a business-related degree (ex: business, management, commerce, information systems, accounting, etc...)
- Minimum Completed Course requirements (undergrads):
 - A minimum of two (2) accounting courses;
 - At least one 300 or 400 (or higher) level finance course with a focus on corporate finance or managerial finance.
 - At least one computer science, AIS or MIS course (Computer courses that deal only with one or more Microsoft applications do not qualify);
- Minimum GPA of 3.00 for the past three (3) semesters;
- Demonstrated leadership and work ethics qualities, as evidenced by a professor or former supervisor letter of recommendation.

Award Deadline and Application Procedures

Student deadline for this award is March 3rd, 2014 at 1 PM. Award winners will be announced sometime during April of 2014.

Required Award Paperwork Checklist:

1. Award applicant's cover letter explaining in 250-300 words why the award candidate should be considered for this award. Please make sure to discuss leadership qualities, academic performance and extracurricular activities and/or previous work or practicum experience.
2. Resume (should not be longer than 2 pages)
3. Sealed, most recent transcript. Copies of transcripts from previous universities attended are acceptable.
4. Endorsement letter from professor or supervisor. Letter must be on university or company stationary, and should be written by a current or former or work supervisor. The use of a specific format or template is NOT required for this recommendation.
5. The consent part of this form (see below) signed and dated by the applicant

Please note that INCOMPLETE packages will NOT be considered.

Sealed applicant package consisting of ALL requirements above must be delivered by mail or in person to:

Student Consent:

I understand the terms and deadlines of this award and have had an opportunity to carefully review the information posted at <http://www.theiia.org/certification/new-to-iiia-certifications/> in order to determine if a career in internal auditing and the CIA certification are the right choices for me. As such, I fully understand the academic, ethics, work experience and continuing education requirements to attain and maintain the Certified Internal Auditor designation. I also acknowledge that I am currently a full time student scheduled to graduate during the 2014-2015 academic year.

MIHALCHEON SCHOOL OF BUSINESS BROWN BAG SEMINARS OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS SERIES 2013-2014

So you really want to go to law school?

What is the allure of this profession? What can you do with the degree and professional qualification once you get them? Most of the coursework and experience you need to get into law school need to happen while you are still earning your undergraduate degree.

Liam Connelly looks closely at what is needed to make a four-year-long and expensive, but worthwhile, commitment to law studies. He also explains how he got the most out of his law education by reflecting on his own experiences. Finally, Liam gives tips on how to get that all important articling position and what it takes to become a successful lawyer. So come to this session, find out how to get over the hurdles, and give yourself a critical advantage if you are thinking about law school in the future.

Presenter's Bio

Liam Connelly holds a BA Honours in Legal Studies from Carleton University. Tracing his family's roots, he studied Scots, English, and European Law. He undertook his Articles and was called as a Barrister and Solicitor to the Alberta Bar in 1998. He returned to the UK where he completed his Masters in Intellectual Property. In the same year, he was awarded first place for his Dissertation on The Interjurisdictional Treatment of Trademarks and Domain Names, and the Moriao Atoke Memorial Prize. In addition to teaching law courses at several post-secondary institutions, Liam continues to operate his own law practice, sits on the boards of several organizations, and is also working towards a Masters in Divinity.
