A Message from John Campbell

Lutheran, Edmonton Lawyer, social advocate

A member of several groups who work with inner city concerns (including ICPM, and Jasper Place Wellness Centre), John has a personal desire – and a sense of call - to be part of improving the lives of people who are in need of some kind. Professionally, John has a care and concern for advocating for the people aren't able to help themselves in certain areas. You will come away with a different passion and understanding for being involved!
